ABOUT SCCA

The South Carolina Correctional Association (SCCA) is a multi-disciplinary organization consisting of correctional professionals, individual agencies and organizations involved in all aspects of criminal justice activities. The SCCA provides professional development to its members through several workshops and seminars conducted throughout the year.

WOMEN'S TASK FORCE

The SCCA Women's Task Force was established in 1981. All women members of SCCA are members of the Task Force. Our goals are to:

- Increase membership
- Encourage professional development for women
- Identify concerns of women and recommend solutions to the association
- Increase communication among all areas of corrections about women's issues
- Give information and encouragement to women who are considering corrections as a career.
